

PRAKTIK PENGINJILAN JALANAN GBP B JEMAAT
YESYURUN BERDASARKAN PERSPEKTIF STRATEGI MISI
PAULUS

HELLENA CHRISTINA YEMBISE

210203004

ABSTRAK

Tujuan penelitian ini adalah untuk menganalisis relevansi antara praktik penginjilan jalanan di GBP B jemaat Yesyurun dengan strategi misi Paulus di Atena secara spesifik menurut Kisah Para Rasul 17:16-34. Penelitian ini merupakan penelitian lapangan dengan metode kualitatif pendekatan deskriptif untuk memperoleh data lapangan di GBP B jemaat Yesyurun mengenai praktik penginjilan jalanan dan studi kepustakaan dengan pendekatan historis kritis guna memperoleh data terkait bagaimana strategi misi Paulus di Atena.

Data dikumpulkan melalui instrumen; observasi, wawancara, dokumentasi, dan studi pustaka. Dari hasil studi pustaka diperoleh bahwa strategi misi Paulus di Atena menghasilkan empat aspek utama, yakni: Pendekatan Misi Kontekstualisasi: melalui Mezbah “Kepada Allah yang tidak dikenal”, Pendekatan Komunikasi Dialogis: melalui Apologetika, Memahami Latar Belakang Kepercayaan Orang Atena, dan Memahami Tujuan Misi. Hasil analisis menunjukkan bahwa strategi misi Paulus di Atena sebagaimana tercatat dalam Kisah Para Rasul 17:16–34 memiliki keterkaitan yang kuat dengan praktik penginjilan jalanan GBP B Jemaat Yesyurun. Keduanya mengutamakan pendekatan kontekstual, yakni menyesuaikan pemberitaan Injil dengan latar belakang sosial dan budaya sasaran misi.

Dari hasil temuan tersebut maka direkomendasikan untuk keempat aspek dari strategi misi Paulus di Atena yaitu, Pendekatan Misi Kontekstualisasi: Melalui Mezbah “Kepada Allah yang tidak dikenal”, Pendekatan Komunikasi Dialogis: melalui Apologetika, Memahami Latar Belakang Kepercayaan Orang Atena, dan Memahami Tujuan Misi, dapat diterapkan sebagai landasan teologis dan strategi penginjilan dalam pelaksanaan praktik penginjilan jalanan di GBP B jemaat Yesyurun Kota Sorong.

Kata Kunci : Penginjilan Jalanan, Strategi Misi Paulus, Kisah Para Rasul 17:16-34.

STREET EVANGELISM PRACTICES OF GBPB JESYURUN
CONGREGATION BASED ON PAUL'S MISSION STRATEGY PERSPECTIVE

HELLENA CHRISTINA YEMBISE

210203004

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this research is to analyze the relevance between the practice of street evangelism in GBPB Jeshurun congregation with Paul's mission strategy in Athens specifically according to Acts 17:16-34. This research is a field research with a qualitative method with a descriptive approach to obtain field data at GBPB Jeshurun regarding the practice of street evangelism and literature study with a critical historical approach to obtain data related to how Paul's mission strategy in Athens.

Data were collected through instruments; observation, interviews, documentation, and literature study. From the results of the literature study, it was found that Paul's mission strategy in Athens resulted in four main aspects, namely: Contextualization Mission Approach: through the altar "To the unknown God", Dialogical Communication Approach: through Apologetics, Understanding the Background of the Athenians' Beliefs, and Understanding the Purpose of the Mission. The results of the analysis show that Paul's mission strategy in Athens as recorded in Acts 17:16-34 has a strong connection with the street evangelism practice of GBPB Jeshurun. Both prioritize a contextual approach, namely adjusting the preaching of the gospel to the social and cultural background of the mission target.

From the findings, it is recommended that the four aspects of Paul's mission strategy in Athens, namely, Contextualization Mission Approach: Through the Altar "To the Unknown God", Dialogical Communication Approach: through Apologetics, Understanding the Background Beliefs of the Athenians, and Understanding the Purpose of the Mission, can be applied as a theological foundation and evangelistic strategy in the implementation of street evangelism practices in the GBPB congregation of Jeshurun Sorong City.

Keywords: Street Evangelism, Paul's Mission Strategy, Acts 17:16-34.